On Christmas Day 2024 the Waynesburg Eagles hosted the 8th annual Free Christmas Day Dinner. The dinner serves all of Green County and even into West Virginia. The meals are delivered to anyone who places an order for delivery or can be picked up or a person can dine in at the Aerie and have dinner with all the volunteers. Each year a gift is given to every senior citizen that places an order and every senior and every child receives a stocking filled with goodies. This dinner was started by the Wolfe family expectations of feeding about 2 dozen people and quickly turned into thousands. This year 2330 meals were served with 1900 of those being delivered. All leftover meals were taken to the homeless camp in Waynesburg.
